This Notice of Privacy Practices describes how your dental health information may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Our Commitment to Privacy Protecting the privacy of your dental health information is important to us. We are committed to ensuring that your health information is protected and kept confidential. We follow strict guidelines set forth by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) to safeguard your health information.

How Your Health Information May Be Used:

We use your dental health information for treatment, payment, and healthcare operations purposes. For example, we may use your health information to:

- Provide dental treatment to you
- Process insurance claims for payment
- Improve the quality of care we provide

We may also use your dental health information for other purposes with your written authorization.

How Your Health Information May Be Disclosed:

We may disclose your dental health information to third parties in certain situations. These situations may include:

- Providing treatment to you
- Processing insurance claims for payment
- Disclosing health information to government agencies as required by law
- Disclosing health information for public health and safety purposes

We will never sell your health information or disclose it for marketing purposes without your written authorization.

Your Rights

You have the right to:

- Access and obtain a copy of your dental health information
- Request that we correct or update your health information
- Request that we restrict the use or disclosure of your health information
- Request that we provide your health information to another person or entity

If you would like to exercise any of these rights or if you have any questions about this Notice of Privacy Practices, please contact us at the phone number or address provided on our website.

Changes to This Notice of Privacy Practices We reserve the right to modify this Notice of Privacy Practices at any time. Any changes will be posted on our website and will be effective immediately. We encourage you to check our website regularly for updates.
